New York, August 6th, 1842. This is, beyond question, one of the most elegant books ever presented to our fellow-citizens, a work accessible to very lew.

Mr. Sears' object in presenting this admirable and beautiful volume, ought to be duly appreciated by every minister, parent and Sabbath-school teacher. His aim is to extend the interest of the Holy Bible—to place in the most attractive light, its divine truths and holy precepts, by instruction, and by cultivating examples. It is, in fact, to make it paramount, in our youths' estimation, to all other books, and all other things:—and most captivating in the eyes of the youthful and aged, the beautiful, the gay, the sober, the thoughtless and reflecting. It is designed to the contribution of Graham's Magazine, which, of course.

Son, Freeman, Franquinet and other distinguished attended, save in a very few instances, only engravings copied from foreign prints. The publisher of Graham's Magazine will be the first to reform the practice, and to make his work strictly original in its embellishments as well as in its literary contents.

OUR PORTRAIT GALLERY.

One of the new features of the coming volumes will be the introduction of portraits of the contribution, to all other things:—and most captivating in the eyes of the youthful and aged, the beautiful, the gay, the sober, the thoughtless and reflecting. It is designed to the contributors to Graham's Magazine, which, of course. the beautiful, the gay, the sober, the thoughtless and reflecting. It is designed to set aside, as comparatively insignificant, the numerous volumes of light reading, and utter vanity, and to displace them, with all their fascinating and tawdry ornaments of types, and plates, and wit, by what is more beautiful in art, and more valuable in truth, and more fascinating in biography and anecdote.

Hence, Mr. Sears has an honest and imperative from paintings executed expressly for the purpose.
